ATALAYA is an international magazine devoted to Cinderellas, “dead” country stamps and other philatelic oddities. It is published twice a year in co-operation with the Halmstad Philatelic Society.

A sample copy is US$3 (or €3) and a two-issue subscription is $6 (or €5). Twenty back issues are $25 (or €20 in Europe). A 25-word ad is $1 (€1) and, for a full page, $20 (€20).

Please remit US or Euro banknotes if possible. UK readers may remit payment in mint British stamps (NVI stamps please) or a £5 banknote, which will cover the next three issues.

An International Reply Coupon is worth $1 to the magazine. Cheques and money orders cannot be accepted.

Svenska läsare kan betala till mitt postgiro 32 99 85-6.

The index was compiled by James Negus, English friend and reader from the earliest days, fulfilling the commitment he made before his retirement from philatelic activity in 2000. From issue SUMMER 2003, Volker Kleiner from Germany (atalaya@philateria.com) continues the index.

The actual version is included at the Royal Philatelic Society Index on www.rpsl.org.uk.
Also available as PDF download on www.philateria.com/ATALAYA.

Checklist of issues

The editor throughout is Christer Brunström, who has written most of the contents. Articles contributed by other authors have their names in brackets in the index. The magazine is published in the English language in Sweden: Nos.[1]-7 were from Vilhelmina and No.8 onward from Halmstad.

No.[1] is titled AI Atalaya International and all subsequent issues Atalaya. Nos.[1] and [2] are in A4 format, all others in A5.

Dates of publication appear at the foot of the editor's column or on the front cover; sometimes there is a date in both positions.

Whole Nos., first specified from No.6, are used for indexing, though the magazine also carries volume and part numbers.

Each issue is separately paged from 1 onward. Some early issues have no page numbers and [notional] ones have been allocated .

Editor's Biography

Christer Brunström was born in Sweden in 1947. After earning a B.A. at the University of Gothenburg, he has spent his entire working life as a language teacher. He currently teaches English and Spanish. For the past 25 years he has been living in Halmstad on Sweden's West Coast.

He discovered stamp collecting in his early teens and has always specialised in local postage stamps and other kinds of Cinderellas.

In addition to publishing the Atalaya for more than 25 years, Christer has written hundreds of articles for stamp magazines in Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Australia and the U.S.A.

He is a member of the Swedish Philatelic Federation, the Swedish Cinderella Society, the Revenue Association. In recognition of his work with Atalaya, Christer was honoured by the Cinderella Stamp Club as the signatory for 1999 of The Maurice Williams Roll of Notable Cinderella Philatelists.
